

AMSTERDAM SCHIPHOL AIRPORT TO CENTRAL STATION

ASME B31.3 / B31.12 – Shell ETCA Host
April 7-11, 2025

Arrivals Hall

After you leave the entry to Europe secure zone, you'll go into the Arrivals Hall. You should have already obtained any checked luggage.

Schiphol Train Station

You can purchase a ticket to Central Station at either the counter, or at a booth using a credit card.

The train station is underground.

Entry into the Train Station

Look for the escalator entrance going down for your track and time.

Boarding

When your train arrives, it's best to let departing travelers off first. You will need to quickly board with your luggage.

Make sure you board a car that corresponds to the class of ticket you purchase.

Find a seat in any location that you can.

Arriving at Amsterdam Central Station

When you arrive, take all your belongings and depart the train. You'll go down to the street level by stairs, escalator or elevator.

Leaving the Building

Once you get down from the tracks, you'll head to either the waterfront, or to the City Center, depending on where your hotel is.

Crossing the Canal

As you leave Central Station, cross the street and turn left to the ferries. They are free and offer inside or outside. It's about 3 or 4 minutes to cross.

Getting to Shell and Yotel Amsterdam

Most people walk, but there might be some taxis near the ferry area if you need one.

Enter Shell Energy Transition Center

Enter at sidewalk level

Security will be on your left

Shell personnel will be there to greet you and get you to the right room
