

C. Baird Brown is the principal of eco(n)law LLC. He works with energy customers and communities and their technology and finance partners to deploy a new generation of energy and sustainability infrastructure. He has helped develop pooled procurement and financing techniques for building energy efficiency improvements and renewable energy for clients such as the Delaware Sustainable Energy Utility and has structured public-private partnerships for a broad array of infrastructure projects. He develops regulatory strategies, tax structures, and project documentation for innovative projects, and counsels clients in connection with taxable and tax-exempt, rated and unrated, and registered and unregistered financings and credit arrangements. He helped form and serves as co-counsel to the Microgrid Resources Coalition.

Baird has played key roles in organizations that advance energy and sustainability goals. He served as a co-chair of energy related committees of the American Bar Association (ABA) and the International Bar Association, and he was a principal author of the form Renewable Energy Credit Purchase Agreement for the American Council on Renewable Energy (ACORE), the Energy Markets Association, and ABA. He represents the Foundation for Renewable Energy and Environment and serves on the boards of non-profit organizations that work for community revitalization and energy justice.