

AUTHORIZATION AND RELEASE FOR USE OF PICTURE AND/OR IMAGE

I knowingly and voluntarily give permission for Briggs & Stratton its employees and agents, and the employees and agents of its subsidiaries, to photograph, videotape or audiotape me and/or any property owned by me and/or in my possession, and use the photographs, videotapes or audiotapes along with my name in publications, advertising, training, informational and other promotional materials distributed to or received by persons within and outside of Briggs & Stratton. I understand and agree that photos, videotapes and/or audiotapes used will be without compensation to me. I further understand and agree that all negatives and positives, together with the prints, all videotapes and audiotapes are the exclusive property of Briggs & Stratton.

I voluntarily and knowingly, fully release and discharge and hold harmless Briggs & Stratton, its employees and agents, and the employees and agents of its subsidiaries from any and all claims, liability, demands, causes of action, damages or costs, including attorney's fees, present or future, whether known or unknown, arising from or incidental to the use of photographs, videotapes and/or audiotapes of me and/or any property owned by me and/or in my possession, taken pursuant of this authorization.

This authorization and release shall remain in effect from the date of its execution. This authorization and release may be revoked by me at any time by sending written notice of revocation of authorization and release to my Human Resources Representative. Revocation of the authorization and release will be effective upon receipt of the written notice by the above-named person, but will require the Company to withdraw or discontinue the use of any photographs, videotapes and/or audiotapes taken and used while this authorization and release was in effect.
