Hynes Convention Center

June 26-30, 2023

Boston, Massachusetts

ASME / IGTI has appointed GES Logistics the official freight forwarder for international logistics services to ASME TURBO EXPO 2023. In conjunction with our international partner in the US, and our worldwide network of international trade show transportation providers, GES International logistics is offering a comprehensive menu of international logistics and customs brokerage services, including on site material handling at the venue.

SHIPPING TO THE SHOW WITH GES LOGISTICS:

Let us handle all your shipping needs and enjoy priority move-in/move-out and more!

With decades of trade show experience, GES Logistics understands your transportation needs. As the Official Services Provider for your show, we offer a variety of fully integrated services and competitive rates that include:

- One-way or roundtrip shipping to and from the show floor
- Priority move-in/move-out
- Online tracking 24/7
- Show site GES support team
- 10% off material handling if shipping roundtrip

GES Logistics offers competitive pricing, expert staff, on-site representation, and consolidated invoicing.

Please contact Paula Lee (plee@ges.com) if you are interested in obtaining an estimate for your International shipment to ASME Turbo Expo. Shipments must be shipped 2-3 weeks prior to show to ensure timely delivery.

SHIPPING TO SHOW USING YOUR OWN CARRIER / TRANSPORT COMPANY:

If you will be using your own transport company for shipping, please note that shipment must be sent DDP (Delivery Duty Paid). Shipment must be US Customs cleared by your transport company and delivered to either the Advance Warehouse or Direct to Show. GES will not act as Importer of Record (IOR) or Ultimate Consignee regarding exhibitor freight and will not provide a Power of Attorney to any entity regarding exhibitor freight.
