

WISHER PAUDEL

I am a third-year Doctoral student in the Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering department at the University of Virginia. I conduct research at UVA's Rotating Machinery and Controls (ROMAC) laboratory with primary focus on design and optimization of zero leakage mixed helical-labyrinth seals, seals test rig, and study of gas centrifuges for nuclear non-proliferation applications.